Andrew Queen — children's entertainer

Get ready to stretch your imagination and wiggle your funny bone! Andrew's wacky action songs and original fairytale tunes will get everyone, big and small, giggling and grooving!
Joining Andrew on stage- Luke Mercier and his violin strings will get you up on your feet and bouncing!

Celebrity Readers' Theatre - with Paul Rellinger and our local celebrities

Maple Leaf Reptiles — Snakes, geckos and bearded dragons. Come meet the reptiles, learn where the animals come from, what their habit is like, their sleeping and eating patterns.

Go Bananas — Play life size board games

Reading Voices — All ages event, 11:15-noon. Reading Voices invites community members to read aloud from your favourite written works

Family Literacy Day

Peterborough Family Literacy Day

BINGO!

When you read together as a family, you always win.

Cook or bake together.
Talk about the math.

Watch a movie or TV show and discuss what it was about.

Sing a nursery rhyme
then change the words.

Make a shopping list.
Use pictures from flyers.

When you read
together as a family,
you always win!

Read Together!

Play hopscotch outside or write words in the snow together.

Look at a family picture and then tell a story.

Make alphabet soup.
Make words out of the letters.

Read signs together around town and along the highway.

Cross out each activity you complete and then bring this card to Family Literacy Day, Saturday, Jan. 22 from 9:00am - 12 noon at Peterborough Square- a free event for your whole family. Enter a draw for a chance to win a wonderful door prize! You must be present at draw time to win. Did I mention the entertainment, activities, crafts, reptile show, and refreshments?
